First published in 1972, Handbook for History Teachers is intended to be a general and comprehensive work of reference for teachers of history in primary and secondary schools of all kinds. The book covers all aspects of teaching history, among them are the use of sources, world history, art and history principles of constructing a syllabus and the psychological aspects of history teaching. The bibliographical sections are arranged on three parts: school textbooks, a section on audio visual aids and finally books for the teacher and possibly for the sixth form. It thoroughly investigates and critiques the various methods employed in teaching history within classrooms and suggests alternatives wherever applicable. Diligently curated by the Standing Sub Committee in History, University of London Institute of Education, the book still holds immense value in the understanding of pedagogy.

Includes proceedings of the Association papers read at the annual sessions and list of current medical literature.
